ORAL JUDGEMENT

This petition has been filed by the petitioner for quashing the dated 11-6-2002 passed by the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Junagadh as also the order dated 4-9-2002 passed by the Deputy Secretary, Home Department, Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, against the externee.

2. The facts in short are that a notice was issued to the petitioner to show cause as to why he may not be externed for a term of two years from the districts Rajkot City, Rajkot Rural, Junagadh and Amreli for the reasons mentioned therein. Thereafter, order of externment was passed. It is the case of the petitioner that he has not been given any opportunity of hearing to defend his case. An appeal preferred before the appellate authority was dismissed on 4-9-2002 which is giving rise to the present petition.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

4. Learned advocate for the petitioner has raised many contentions in the petition. But at the time of arguments, he has restricted only on the point of show-cause notice and argued that the show-cause notice does not disclose the reason for externing the petitioner and hence, the ground which has been shown in the order is vague and authority has not considered the defence of the petitioner. He has taken me through show cause notice and the order passed by both the authorities. He has relied upon the case of Mustufamiya Pirsahedmiya Saiyed Vs. State of Gujarat and Another, reported in 1999(1) G.L.H. 913 wherein it has been held by our High Court at head note (A) as under:

> "(A) Bombay Police Act, 1951-S.59-Externment--Show-cause notice--C.R.No. 52/93 shown pending, but petitioner was acquitted on 23.5.1997--Show-cause notice dated 30.5.1998--Acquittal on benefit of doubt--Acquittal is acquittal, whether giving benefit of doubt or on finding that prosecution failed to establish the charge beyond doubt--Held, show-cause notice was mechanically issued."

It appears that the externee has not been given any opportunity of hearing to defend his case and since vague grounds are given in the show-cause notice, in view of the above reported judgment of this Court, the orders require interference. Since the petitioner succeeds only on one point, he does not press other grounds.

5. In view of the above, the petition is allowed. Order dated 11-6-2002 passed by the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Junagadh as also the order dated 4-9-2002 passed by the Deputy Secretary, Home Department, Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, against the externee are quashed and set aside. Direct service is permitted.
